

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300330027-0

CPYRGHT

Ex-CIA Officer Is Tydings Aide

CPYRGHT

(Washington Bureau of The Sun)

Washington, Aug. 14—A former Central Intelligence Agency administrative officer has been appointed legislative assistant for Maryland affairs on the staff of Senator Tydings (D., Md.), the Senator announced.

✓ He is Robert F. Jones, formerly with the National Association of Counties where he was responsible for planning and conducting forums on county, state and Federal governmental relations nationwide.

A 1950 graduate of the University of Maryland, Mr. Jones received his bachelor's degree in industrial psychology, was a personnel psychologist with the Air Force and later served as an administrative officer with the CIA.